

CONFIDENTIALITY AGREEMENT

The purpose of this appendix is to help provide a safe environment where you and those in the group can feel free to share without fear of exposure. It is imperative that members are able to openly share their experiences without being exposed either intentionally or unintentionally. Be an honorable group member – keep your group members and their stories confidential.

My signature below indicates the following:

- I will not disclose who is participating in this group.
- I will not share what anyone discusses in this group, even if I don't identify them.
- I will not in any way identify group members to anyone outside the group. This includes in introduction or explanation of how I met or came to know group members.

Who (and what) I see here, what I hear here, when I leave here, I let it stay here!
